

At Upper Star Post, there are paths in all directions. From Crowthorne, the “Devils Highway” passes through Upper Star Post. The Devils Highway continues due West for about 25 miles to Silchester where it ends at a Roman town, the remains of which still can be visited. There are additional pylons from here into Crowthorne woods (heading west) following the Devils Highway.

Upper Start Post

From here it is approx. 1.2 miles back to The Look Out. The sign points the way (note the route straight back to The Look Out is to the left of the Devils Highway, heading east).

Continue along Ladies Mile following the pylons to Lower Star Post

Lower Star Post offers tracks in all directions. From here, the quickest way back to The Look Out is approx. 1.3 miles.

Escape Route from Lower Start Post

Route back to The Look Out from Lower Star Post – follow sign for Windsor Ride, then immediately bear left.
